11. Such questions shall be asked from the works assigned to probationers at the Final Examination as the Civil Service Commissioners may see fit to require in order to secure that no credit is allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

11. The Civil Service Commissioners may, in their discretion, at any time prior to the grant of the Certificate of Qualification referred to in the next succeeding Rule, require, at cases to be conducted, such inquiries as they may deem necessary in respect of the suitability, age, health, character and conduct of a probationer, and of the result of such inquiries is unsatisfactory in any of the above respects, the Secretary of State may, after consultation with the Civil Service Commissioners, decide with or without the consent of the Indian Civil Service.

15. If any probationer is prevented by sickness or any other adequate cause from attending, or from completing his course of study for, the Final Examination, the Commissioners may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, allow him to appear at the Final Examination to be held on the following year, or may arrange for him to be specially entered in any or all of the subjects prescribed for the Final Examination for such a year as may seem to them suitable having regard to the circumstances of the case. The marks awarded to a probationer in respect of such a special examination shall not be taken into account by the Commissioners in assessing the order of merit referred to in Rule 13.

16. A probationer who wishes to join an Inn of Court or to pursue an extra course of study, in addition to the course prescribed in these Rules, shall first obtain the permission of the Secretary of State. Permission to pursue an extra course of study will be accorded only in exceptional circumstances, and, if accorded, will be subject to review at any time.

17. (1) No salary shall be payable to a probationer in respect of his service during the probationary period, but each probationer shall receive an allowance of £200, or, if he has no domestic domicile, of £300.

(2) The allowance shall be payable by the High Commissioner for India in 25 monthly instalments, the first of £20 (£30 in the case of probationers with no domestic domicile) on appointment, and the last, of £20, after signature of the Covenant. The remainder of the allowance shall be payable in ten equal instalments of £20 (£30 in the case of probationers with no domestic domicile). The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, direct the commencement of the allowance to a probationer whose Final Examination is postponed, in circumstances such that he has no control, but in no circumstances shall a probationer be made to be a probationer whose departure for India is delayed as a result of his failure to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners at the Final Examination.

(3) Each probationer shall intimate to the Under Secretary of State for India, Services Department, the address in which it is desired that the institution of his allowance should be sent.

(a) the refusal of the Civil Service Commissioners to issue a certificate under Rule 12 in respect of the probationer; or

(b) the failure of the probationer to execute the Covenant prescribed by these Rules and to proceed to India as the time and in the manner directed by the Secretary of State.

His way must be cleared an allowance of such amount as may be determined from time to time by the Secretary of State.

20. Nothing in the foregoing Rules shall be construed as limiting the power of the Secretary of State to require, at any time, a probationer from the Indian Civil Service to assume such which, in his judgment, justify such action.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

Port St. George, November 8, 1927.

No. 723.—

About the 21st of October 1927, the workers on the rails in the Colaba area went on strike. As a result of the efforts of the Madras Police and the Government, the workers on the rails resumed work on or about the 4th November, the Government having given assurance to them that no enquiry would be held regarding their grievances. It is regrettable that workers in those mills are still on strike.

The Government have decided to appoint a Court of Enquiry under section 2 of the Trade Disputes Act, to investigate and give findings on the points in dispute. The Collector and District Magistrate of Coimbatore is directed to obtain statements of grievances from the workers and statements by way of reply from the management of the mills and reduce them to specific points and submit them to Government who will finally formulate their findings by the Court of Enquiry. The Collector and District Magistrate is directed to submit his report as early as possible. The proceedings of the Court of Enquiry will be announced by the Government at once as the report is received.

The Government hope that the workers who are still on strike will resume work immediately and the arrangements mentioned will facilitate resumption of work without any restriction or delay.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

Fort St. George, November 2, 1927 (S.D. No. 2843, Madras).

No. 442.

Instances have come to the notice of Government to which, owing to a misapprehension of the rules relating to the purchase of stores for the public service, indenting officers have placed their orders with the India Store Department, London, thereby causing needless extra expenditure to Government in the shape of charges for technical advice furnished or other services rendered in connection with the actual execution of the orders. In the case of machinery and fittings this procedure involves further additional expenditure to Government on the installation of the machinery in the premises in which it is required.

2. With a view to obviating a recurrence of this practice the Government propose to amplify below the scope of the rules on the subject:—

(a) In the first place, the rules require that, in purchasing articles of foreign manufacture, conditions regarding quality and price being equal, preference should be given to articles held in stock in India and it is only when the articles cannot be purchased locally that they need be imported.

(b) The rules doubtless contain a provision for purchase outside India of certain specified articles and articles of a special or unusual character. Even here, it is incumbent on the purchasing officer to satisfy himself that suitable and economic purchase cannot be made in India and when purchase abroad is resorted to, they should clearly place on record the reasons for doing so.

3. Most of the manufacturing firms of foreign countries have agencies in India prepared to deliver articles at the places required and to give the necessary technical advice and service where the installation of machinery or fittings purchased has also to be arranged for. Under these conditions, local purchase is likely to be advantageous from the point of view of economy, efficiency and expedition of business and the economies in which purchase will have to be made should not be forgotten.

Heads of Departments and indenting officers are once again asked to observe carefully the rules the issue of which is to encourage the local purchase of stores.

C. R. MASTERMAN,
 Secretary to Government.
